(b) The election committee will meet the day prior to the annual meeting and will be provided with an up-to-date Member in good standing list by the Doe Valley Office Staff. The election committee will meet for the purpose of opening, verifying and counting ballots. Only signed official ballots of Members in good standing will be counted.

(c) Election results will be documented, sealed, and given to the secretary of the Board who will open the envelope and read the results at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE V MEETINGS OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The offices of DVA shall be elected annually by the Board at the first meeting of the Board held after annual meeting of Members. If the election of offices shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as convenient.

Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until a successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until death, resignation, or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

SECTION 2. REGULAR MEETINGS

(a) Meetings of the Board and any Committee thereof at which a quorum of the Members of that Committee is present shall be open to all Members.

(b) Board meeting discussions are not open to all Members when the meeting is between the Board and its attorney to discuss proposed or pending litigation or when the contents of the discussion would be governed by the attorney-client privilege.

(c) Any Member may tape record or video tape open meetings of the Board. The right to attend such meetings includes the right to speak at such meetings with reference to all designated agenda items. The DVA may adopt reasonable rules governing the frequency, duration, and manner of Member statements.

(d) Adequate notice of all meetings may be held within this state, which notice shall specifically incorporate identification of agenda items, shall be posted conspicuously within Doe Valley property at least forty-eight (48) hours preceding the meeting, except in an emergency.

(e) Any item not included on the notice may be taken up on an emergency basis by at least a majority plus one (1) of the members of the Board. Such emergency action shall be noticed and ratified at the next regular meeting of the Board.

(f) Written notice of any meeting at which non-emergency special assessments are discussed shall be mailed or sent via modern communications technology to the Members and posted conspicuously within Doe Valley property not less than fourteen (14) days prior the meeting. Evidence of compliance with this fourteen (14) day notice shall be made by an affidavit executed by the person providing the notice and filed among the official records of DVA. The Board shall designate a specific location within the Doe Valley property upon which all notices of Board meetings shall be posted.

(h) Notice of any meeting in which regular assessments against Members are to be considered for any reason shall specifically contain the statement that assessments will be considered and the reason for the nature of the assessment.

SECTION 3. SPECIAL MEETINGS

(a) Special Meetings of the Board may be called by the president or secretary at the written request of two-fifth (2/5) of the Board.

(b) Notice of the meeting shall be given personally or by mail, telephone, or email. Adequate notice of all special meetings, which notice shall specifically incorporate identification of agenda items, shall be posted conspicuously within Doe Valley property at least forty-eight (48) continuous hours preceding the meeting, except in an emergency.

(c) Any item not included on the notice may be taken up on an emergency basis by at least a majority plus one of the members of the Board. Such emergency action shall be noticed and ratified at the next regular meeting of the Board.

SECTION 4. QUORUM

A quorum at Board meetings shall consist of a majority of the entire Board. The acts approved by a majority of those present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the acts of the Board.

SECTION 5. VOTING OF BOARD

Board members may not vote by proxy or by secret ballot, except a secret ballot may be used when electing officers. However, phone conferencing will be allowed to encourage discussion about a vote.

SECTION 6. MANNER OF ACTING

(a) Roberts Rules of Order will be followed for parliamentary procedures.

(b) Board meetings can be held by conference call or video conference or any other method by which all the participants can simultaneously hear each other to discuss and debate matters before them.

(c) Emails and faxes are suitable substitutes for regular mail in giving notice that a meeting will be held. However, they are not considered suited for the conduct of the deliberative process and debate under parliamentary rules.

(d) Votes after completion of debate may be accepted through modern communications technology.

ARTICLE VI AUTHORITY AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. GENERAL POWERS.

The Board of Directors shall have the power and responsibility to:

(a) Conduct the business and affairs of DVA by engaging the services of any persons deemed necessary by the Board, at such compensation deemed reasonable by the Board, in the operation, repair, maintenance and management of the Facilities and DVA property, including the common streets, roads, and passageways of the subdivision to be deeded to DVA, and to remove, at any time, any such personnel with or without cause.

(b) Adopt and publish Rules and Regulations and Policies governing the use of the Properties, T1-T16 Areas, and Facilities within the Doe Valley Community, and the personal conduct of the Members and their guests thereon, and to establish fines or penalties for the infraction thereof.

(c) Suspend the voting rights and right to use the recreational Facilities of a Member during any period in which a Member shall be in default of the payment of any dues, assessment, fines, or fees levied on such Member. Such rights may also be suspended after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for infraction of published rules and regulations;

(d) Exercise the powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to the DVA and not reserved to the membership by other provisions of these Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation.

(e) Employ a manager, or an independent contractor, or such other employees as they deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties.

(a) Adopt an annual budget; levy and collect dues for common expenses; collect assessments for special expenses; collect membership fees, assessments, fines and dues; file liens and have the right and power to bring all actions against the owner of the property for the collection of such cost for fees and enforce the above-stated lien; and instead of foreclosure may obtain a personal judgment against property owner.

(1) Fix the amount of the monthly dues against each lot at least sixty (60) days in advance of each fiscal period.

(2) Send written notice of dues to every lot owner subject thereto at least sixty (60) days in advance of fiscal dues period.

(3) File a lien against any property for which assessments are not paid within one hundred twenty (120) days after due date or bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay the same.

(4) Fix the amount of special assessments as required prior to Member vote.

(b) Keep a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and present a statement of such to the Members thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting of the Members. Any special meeting when such statement is requested in writing by one-fifth (1/5) of the Members who are entitled to vote will be provided.

(c) Establish and maintain one or more bank accounts for the deposit of any funds paid to or received by DVA.

(d) Grant permits, licenses, and easements over DVA property for utilities, roads and other purposes necessary for the proper operation of the DVA.

(e) Make arrangements for and pay for out of the general fund, a comprehensive general liability insurance policy or policies insuring DVA against any bodily injury and property damage liability to the public on DVA property, incident to the ownership, operation, maintenance and/or use of DVA property, public ways and any other areas that are owned or are otherwise under the supervision of DVA, and liability related to employment contracts to which DVA is a party.

(f) Make arrangements for and pay for, out of the general fund, fidelity bond(s) covering anyone, including any management agent, who either handles or is responsible for funds held or administered by DVA whether or not such persons receive compensation for their services. Said fidelity bond(s) shall name DVA as an obligee and shall cover the maximum funds that will be in the custody of DVA or its management agent at any time while the bond is in force. The fidelity bond coverage must at least equal the sum of three (3) months' assessments on all lots in the subdivision. Premiums for all fidelity bonds provided for in these By-Laws shall be common expenses.

(g) Make arrangements for any policy of insurance or fidelity bond which shall have a provision requiring ten (10) days' written notice to DVA and any holder of a first mortgage named in the mortgage clause before the insurance policy or fidelity bond may be cancelled or substantially modified for any reason.

(h) Represent the Members and mortgage holders in the event any of the property held by DVA is to be condemned or taken by any local governmental authority, by eminent domain or otherwise. DVA, acting through the Board, shall represent the Members and their mortgage holders in any proceedings, negotiations, settlements or agreements arising hereunder. Any proceeds or damages resulting shall be payable to DVA and shall be held for the benefit of the Members and their mortgage holders.

(i) Oversee all agents and employees of DVA, and see that their duties are properly performed and evaluated annually in writing. This evaluation shall initially be performed within six (6) months of initial hire.

(j) Cause DVA Properties to be maintained.

(k) Perform such duties as required by DVA Owner's Rules & Regulations and Architectural Policies as filed for various sections of DVA and Articles of Incorporation of DVA.

All committees will serve only in an advisory capacity to the Doe Valley Manager and the Board.

SECTION 1. PERMANENT STANDING COMMITTEES

(a) ADVISORY COUNCIL: Composed of a volunteer Member from each section of Doe Valley. The primary purpose of the Area Representative Council is to ensure that the Board of Directors is in close touch with the growing and diverse expectations, interests, opinions, values, and needs of the membership. The scope of this committee has no fiduciary responsibility; they advise and evaluate concerns that affect the Members of DVA, and provide a conduit for communication between the Board and the Members.

(b) ARCHITECTURAL COMMITTEE: Composed of Members, some volunteer, some selected for their expertise in this area. The primary purpose of the architectural committee is to preserve and protect the value of properties by the regulation of architectural design and the quality of homes and other structures in the Doe Valley Community. This committee determines whether such proposed new construction or remodeling is in compliance with the restrictive covenants and is aesthetically harmonious with the other structures in the community. Building permits are also issued by this committee. Violations are handled through the General Manager and the Compliance Committee.

(c) CAMPGROUND COMMITTEE: Composed of volunteers who use the campground, this committee notifies the DVA Board of any physical/construction needs and develops the rules and regulations for the campground. Violations are handled through the General Manager and the Compliance Committee.

(d) COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE: Composed of volunteers, this committee develops the number and price of fines for infractions of the DV Rules and Regulations and the process of adjudication. Their product is reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors and managed by the General Manager.

(e) FISHING AND BOATING CLUB: Composed of DVA Members who pay a small annual fee, this committee develops the rules and regulations for the lake and main Marina on Compton Drive and monitors the status of the lake water for the KY Dept. of Water. Violations are handled through the General Manager and the Compliance Committee.

(f) GOLF COMMITTEE: Composed of volunteers who use the golf course, this committee notifies the DVA Board of any physical/construction needs of the course and develops the rules and regulations for the golf course. Violations are handled through the General Manager and the Compliance Committee.

(g) ROAD TRUST FUND: Composed of volunteers, this committee makes recommendations to the General Manager and the DVA board regarding funds, expenses, and identifying maintenance needs.

h) SWIM AND TENNIS CLUB COMMITTEE: Composed of volunteers who use the Swim and Tennis Club, this committee notifies the DVA Board of any physical/construction needs; develops the rules and regulations for the Swim & Tennis Club; develops and oversees activities; reviews food/beverage sales and updates menus.

(i) WATER AND SEWER: Composed of Members, some volunteer, some selected for their expertise in this area, this committee consults with the maintenance staff and the General Manager regarding funds available, expenses, and water and sewer infrastructure needs.

DVA shall provide to each lot owner, insurer or guarantor of any first mortgage that is secured by a lot, who shall so request in writing, a copy of DVA's audited financial statement for the preceding fiscal year.

SECTION 3. ANNUAL REPORTS

A copy of the annual financial report and manager's report shall be mailed to Members prior to, or together with the notice of, the annual meeting of Members for each year. The annual report to Members, or the proxy statement for the annual meeting of the Members, shall disclose and set forth such information as may be required to be included in the proxy statements by the Board.

ARTICLE X FISCAL POLICIES

SECTION 1. FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of DVA shall begin on the first day of January and end on the 31st day of December of every year.

SECTION 2. ASSESSMENTS, DUES, FEES, AND FINES

(a) Each Member is obligated to pay to DVA dues, fees and special assessments. Any assessment not paid when due shall be delinquent. If the assessment is not paid within thirty (30) days from due date, the assessment shall bear interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum. DVA may bring an action to law against the owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the property and interest, costs, reasonable attorney's fees of any such action shall be added to the amount of such assessment. A personal judgment against property owner may be assessed instead of foreclosure. No lot owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non-use of the common area or abandonment of owner's lot(s).

(b) Dues may be changed on an annual basis validated by expenses.

SECTION 3. CONTRACTS

The Board may authorize any Director(s), agent(s), to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instruments in the name of and on behalf of DVA, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

SECTION 4. LOANS

No loans shall be contracted on behalf of DVA, and no evidence of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the Board. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

SECTION 5. APPROVAL OF ELIGIBLE MORTGAGE HOLDERS

In addition to approval by DVA Members, amendments of a fiscal nature, (as defined by the Federal National Mortgage Association guidelines), must also be approved by eligible mortgage holders representing at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes of the subdivision lots that are subject to mortgages held by eligible mortgage holders. For the purpose of this section, "eligible mortgage holder" shall mean those holders of a first mortgage on a subdivision lots who have requested DVA to notify them of any such "fiscal" change.

SECTION 6. CHECKS, DRAFTS, ORDERS, ETC.

All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidence of indebtedness issued in the name of DVA shall be signed by two (2) such Director(s) and/or agent(s) of DVA.

SECTION 7. DEPOSITS

All funds of DVA not otherwise designated shall be deposited to the credit of DVA in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board may select.

ARTICLE XI WAIVER OF NOTICE

Whenever any notice whatsoever is required to be given under the provisions of these By-Laws, or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, or under the provisions of the non-stock, non-profit corporation laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, waiver in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XII AUDITORS

SECTION 1. CONSIDERATION OF AUDITORS

(a) The DVA's books shall be examined annually by an independent firm of public accountants whose selection shall be made by the Members in the manner herein set forth:

(1) Any member of DVA may submit any name of a firm or firms to the Board fifty (50) days prior to annual meeting

(2) The Board shall request a minimum of three (3) bids for the next year's audit thirty (30) days after receipt of previous years' audit

(3) The Board shall, prior to each annual members' meeting recommend a suitable firm of public accountants to act as DVA's auditors for the ensuing year

(b) Firm contracted shall not exceed three (3) consecutive years.

SECTION 2. DUTIES OF AUDITORS

The auditors shall address their certificate to DVA and have same included in DVA's annual report. The auditors shall furnish to each member of the Board a copy of their full report, including an adequate summary of the instructions under which their examination was conducted. The scope of the annual audit shall be arranged with the auditors by the Board, but at a minimum shall include an audit of income, expenses, and net worth as the basic level of auditing that is required. A representative of the auditors shall be required to attend the annual meeting of the Members to answer questions and to make any explanation or statements they desire to make with respect to the accounts.

ARTICLE XIII AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. NOTICE OF AMENDMENT

Notice of the subject matter of the proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is considered.

SECTION 2. APPROVAL OF DVA MEMBERS

- (a) A resolution amending these By-Laws may be proposed by either the Board or DVA Members.
- (b) Except as elsewhere provided, approval must be at least sixty-six percent (66%) of the entire membership of the Board together with not less than forty percent (40%) of the votes of DVA Members; or by at least sixty percent (60%) of the votes of DVA Members (in which case approval by the Board is not required).

SECTION 3. PROHIBITIONS

No amendment shall discriminate against any Member or against any lot or class or group of lots unless the Member so affected shall consent. No amendment shall change any lot or the lot owner's right in DVA property, or increase the owner's percentage of the common expenses, or change the voting rights of Members, unless the record owner of the lot(s) concerned and all record owners of liens on such lot(s) shall join in the execution of the amendment.

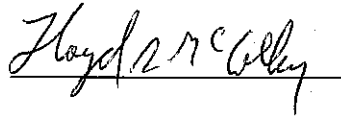

SECTION 4. REPEAL

Repeal of these By-Laws in their entirety and their replacement by the new By-Laws shall be accomplished in the same manner as provided by this Article for the amendment of these By-Laws.

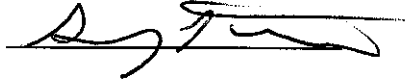

ARTICLE XIV RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Board may establish, alter, amend or rescind Rules and Regulations for the governing of conduct of all Members of DVA, their families, guests, invitees and licensees while in Doe Valley Subdivision or in or on any of the Facilities, streets or public areas in the overall area known as Doe Valley.
